Bruera Church, formerly Bruera Chapel or Churton-Heath Chapel, stands on land reputed to be in the township of Saighton, together with the glebe adjacent to the church measuring about 15 statute acres, although the lie of the land and the boundary lines suggest that it was formerly included in the township of Churton Heath.

Bruera is a Low-Latin word meaning heathland, so that it merely represents the original English form, which was no doubt simply Heath.* A good deal of discussion has taken place as to the origin of the name Churton Heath, but it seems probable that it is a corruption of the form common in early documents, Churchen Heath, meaning the Church's heath, the en being the Anglo Saxon genitive case, and the heathland in this neighbourhood belonging to the Church of St. Werburgh in Chester, at some early date a chapel was built at this spot.

The earliest specific reference is in a charter recited in the Chartulary of St. Werburgh's Abbey (Harl. MS., No. 1965, par. 496), a translation of which is as follows: "Robert the Seneschal (Dapifer) rendered to God and St. Werburgh, the church of St. Mary of Bruera absolved and quit, which he and his father formerly held at farm under the monks for 7s. yearly, and Abbot Ralph, etc., quit-claimed the vill of Lea on account of this to the same Robert which he often laid claim to as the gift of William de Montalt." The name which fixes the date of this charter is that of Ralph the Abbot, who reigned from February, 1141, to November, 1157. Robert de Montalt the hereditary Seneschal of the Earls of Chester, seems to have succeeded to this office about 1140, and occurs in charters of ante 1153 (Helsby's Ormerod, vol. i, p. 25), so that we shall probably not be far wrong if we date the above-mentioned exchange as 1150. It will be seen that in this exchange reference is made to the holding of the Church of Bruera under the monks by the grantor's father, so that the document takes us back to the early years of the twelfth century.

* From the early documents relating to the property it appears that a family name of Heath was derived from it, the owner being called John del Heth or Heath.

The Church seems to have been regularly served by one of the assistant priests from St. Oswald's in Chester down to the time of the dissolution of St. Werburgh's Abbey. After the foundation of the see of Chester in 1541, the duty was chiefly discharged by the assistant clergy from St. Oswald's, although occasionally the curates were resident.

The chapelry included the four townships of Churton-Heath, Lea Newbold, Saighton, and Huntington, and about 1868* this district was constituted a separate parish, endowed with the corn tithes of these four townships, and with the glebe before-mentioned adjacent to the Church.

The following list contains the names of most of the curates :

1554. JOHN HARPER. Mentioned under this date in a list of clergy summoned to the Episcopal Visitation in that year [MS. Bishop's Registry].

1646. ALEXANDER COMIN. Appointed by the Parliament [Plundered Ministers' Accounts, Record Society, vol. 28, p. 159].

1670-1. WILLIAM BORDMAN. Appeared at the Bishop's Visitation,† 3 June 1671, as "Clerk minister of Bruera," signs Transcript as "Vicar" 1670-1. He was Vicar of St. Oswald's in 1667 (vide Ormerod, vol. i, p. 306).

1671. WILLIAM COLLEY. Signs Transcript as "Minister," 1671-2. He was the elder son of the Rev. Jonathan Colley, Rector of Pulford, and owned the township of Churton-Heath. He matriculated at Oxford (Brazenose), 15 June 1657, and took his B.A. in 1661 ; he was ordained 4th June 1661, by Thomas, Bishop of Whithorn, and licensed to preach in the Diocese of Chester by the Bishop of Chester, 14th July 1670. Mr. Colley was buried at Bruera on the 8th October 1690 (vide Register, p. 5), as "Mr William Colley, Minister."

* Ormerod (Helsby), vol. ii, p. 762.

† On this occasion he was presented by the Churchwardens of Bruera "for not coming every Sunday to preach nor sending a Curate." There is no record of the result of this complaint, but it probably led to Mr. Colley's appointment in the same year.

1691. ARTHUR FOGG. Signs the Transcripts as "Curate" in 1691-2 until 1695-6. He was Vicar of St. Oswald's in 1699.

1696-7. THOMAS LEFTWICH. Signs the Transcript in 1696-7, and appeared at the Bishop's Visitation as "Curate," 30th June 1696.

1697-8. SAMUEL WALKER. Signs the Transcript as "Curate" in 1697 and 1698. He was married at Bruera, 1696 (vide Register, p. 29).

1699. JOHN HODSON. Signs the Transcripts as "Curate," 1699 till 1701. Appeared at Bishop's Visitation 13th May 1701 as "Curate of Bruera." Probably identical with John Hodson, Rector of Thursbaston, 1705-52. (See "Wirral Notes & Queries," vol. ii, p. 78.)

1705. ARTHUR FOGG. Appeared at various Bishops' Visitations until 1738, also Vicar of St. Oswald's. According to the Bishop's Visitation for 1708 William Calkin was licensed to Bruera on the 31st May 1708 (in Deacon's Orders), no doubt as assistant curate; while in 1716 Charles Aldcroft occurs, in 1725 Robert Fogg, in 1733 John Wilkinson, and in 1738 Thomas Wrench.

1742. RICHARD JACKSON. Appeared at Bishop's Visitation with John Carmichael as Assistant Curate. Mr. Jackson was also Vicar of St. Oswald's, 1738-61, and of Prees, 1741.

In 1747 Robert Whiston occurs as Assistant Curate; in 1754 and 1760, Thomas Woolwright.

1766. CHARLES HENCHMAN. Appears at Bishops' Visitation, also Vicar of St. Oswald's. In 1770, John Cawley occurs as Assistant Curate, and in 1778 John Whinfield appears at Bishop's Visitation.

1780. THOMAS BROADHURST. Appears at Visitation, also Vicar of St. Oswald's. In 1783 George Vanburgh occurs, in 1789 Philip Oliver, and in 1794 John Halton, as Assistant Curate.

1803. THOMAS MAWDESLEY, also Vicar of St. Oswald's. From 1806 to 15 Charles Burslam seems to have been in charge as Curate.

1819. JOSEPH EATON. Appears at Visitation, also Vicar of St. Oswald's.

1827. WILLIAM HARRISON. Appears at Visitation, also Vicar of St. Oswald's. During Mr. Harrison's lifetime the following appear to have discharged the duties as Curates:—In 1820-6 Mescie Domvile Taylor, in 1828 L. T. Wilson, in 1829 Thomas Harrison, in 1829 J. Hodgkinson, in 1830-2 James Wright, in 1833

Thomas Halton, in 1834-6 Thos. Cooper, in 1837 G. Gardiner, in 1841 Fred. Stewart, in 1843-50 R. F. J. Shea, in 1851-66 John Webster, and in 1866-8 G. L. Whitehouse. Mr. Trott states that certainly the two last named Curates were resident.

VICARS.

1868. THOMAS BELL.
1869. DANIEL SHAW.
1886. RONALD DUNN.
1896. JULIAN CAMPBELL BERKELEY.
1906. HENRY WILLIAM TROTT.

The first volume of the Registers is bound in rough calf-covered boards, with brass clasps. Its dimensions are 1 ft. 7 in. by 7½ in., by 1 in. There are 40 paper leaves, some of them loose from the binding, and others partially so, while apparently some leaves from either end of the volume are missing.

The Burials, 1662-1812, are written on 25 pages, and are followed by the Marriages, purporting to cover the period, 1665-1750, written on three pages. The Baptisms begin at 1657, and are written on 43 pages, commencing at the reverse end of the volume. The first seven leaves of the Baptisms are written on one side only.

Volume II consists of 92 leaves of parchment, and one fly-leaf of paper, bound in strong rough calf-covered boards. The Marriages (including a few entries of Banns of Marriages) purport to be for the period 1754 to 1816, and are written on 60 pages, equivalent to 30 leaves. The rest of the book, 62 leaves are entirely blank.

The dimensions of the volume are as follows, viz., 1 ft. 5 in. by 6½ in. by 1¼ in. over all.

The grateful thanks of the Editor are due to the Rev. H. W. Trott, the present Vicar, for permission to print the Register and for much kindly help; to Mr. T. H. Davies-Colley, of Newbold, for a nearly complete transcript of the Register; and last, but not least, to Miss Hobday for the laborious task of making the Index.

Register of Bruera.
